

Look out for Promotional Offers

All the major Breweries have pledged their continued support to Batley IDLC and its loyal drinkers. Watch you don't miss your chance to win...

Stella Artois
The first to start the promotional launch. Each offer will run for just over a two week period. With Stella, you have to collect tokens on a card. Completed card will see you have a Free pint. Followed by entry into the draw for a Stella Artois Jacket.

Watch Out
Keep an eye out for other similar offers. Designed to keep things fresh and not to drag on. Keeping you, our members interested!

Eton Rifles

Friday 22nd February. £5 Ticket.
Available from Bar. 7.30pm til late

Its the Nash, Tracey tells him. Not the Rovers!
But never mind.. You're more than welcome to drink here. Feel free to call again.
Jack Shepherd who plays David Platt calls in to Nash. Pictured with our Stewardess, Tracey.

One of our own characters, Margaret Walker tries desperately to seek a part on Corrie from actor Jack Shepherd. To which he gracefully informs, don't call us, we'll call you! Sorry you were pestered to death Jack.

If only the corrie writers would visit here. It'd make a right Soap Opera!

WISHING ALL OUR MEMBERS & GUESTS A VERY HAPPY NEW YEAR

✧ Another Fresh Year ✧

Now into our 131st year since established in 1882. 2013 brings into a fresh year we can be proud. Along with it our long standing Club. Here's to many more..... Good years!

CLUB SECRETARY, ANDREW MURPHY

Interior Designer

Our very own in-house designer, Jean Shaw. To which a fantastic job was done in preparing the Club for the festive season. Its been greatly admired and appreciated by all. Thanks also to Jean's carefully selected helpers, Pam Wroe and husband Stuart Shaw.

Thanks again.

Taking the position some eight years ago, I was the youngest ever Secretary. I am to this day, still the youngest serving Official.

Still enthusiastic about the Club now, as I was back then. I think the Nash is a unique and great place.

Both to work and of course to socialise. This is backed up by our countless members and many reoccurring guests.

I just wanted to bring in the New Year with a massive thank you to all our members (of course, guests). To which without your support there would be no Club. The economic times are hard, especially in this trade. But this Club is doing well and moving from strength to strength. Again of which you all play a huge part. Once again, thank you. Wishing you all the best for the New Year.

MEMBERSHIP SUBSCRIPTIONS

Payment for Subs will begin; Friday 11th January to Sunday 3rd February
Usual Office Opening Times apply. Alternatively, you can leave you Membership Card along with correct fee at the Bar. They'll be processed at the next available Office opening. Ready for collection back at the Bar.
There is no change to Membership Fee's. Still £6 for Gents & Ladies.

Celebrations throughout the Season

The Club enjoyed many individual parties throughout the festive season. To which we we're more than happy to host. We'd also like to thank our membership and guests. That we had virtually no trouble, even though at times the club was extremely busy.

The decision to have in post professional security wasn't taken lightly. In the end it we feel it was a right move. Their presence was to protect our members, building and guests from harm and abuse. They certainly delivered on that. We also received many positive comments about their appearance and mannerism. All of which were excellent.

Margaret Walker plays Santa to Sharon and Tracey. Saying 'Thank You' for looking after them over the year. An appreciative member! Thanks Margaret.

Peter Henry leading the afternoon club, with wonderful cheer and spirit. "We're not having nowt traditional. Its corned beef pie and mucky fat for us!"

Sheila Foley and assistant Pam Heaton as they prepare for the annual Senior Members Christmas Dinner. Thanks again Sheila. As usual superb feedback. Negative side, more roast potatoes next year please!

Our two likely lads, Michael and Joe. "Cheer up its Christmas" says Jean, our newly appointed roving reporter. Bah humbug! replies Joe. Happy New Year gents, apologies for our new journalist.

If you'd like to feature in our monthly newsletter, please send in your story. Or if you notice Jean Foley hovering around, you now know why!

Ladies steal the show for the first time on this year's Christmas handicap. Sheila Foley & Sharon Rhodes win the 'All Fours'. Well done Ladies.

Get Well Soon

Club President Ron Wilkinson sends on his sincere thanks. The kind messages of support have all been received to which he's very grateful for.

As most will know Ron has been unwell for some time due to a bladder infection. After various attempts of treatment and recent surgery we hope that this will now lead to the road of recovery.

With subscriptions due shortly he's determined to be back for their collection.
